INTRODUCTION

The roots of The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce date as far back as the year 1891 when The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Parsi Charitable Institution was first established. During that era, it was realized that education was needed to uplift the status of the community and the country at large.

The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce saw the light of the day in June 1998, when The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Parsee Charitable Institution felt the need to provide education at the university level.

The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce operates from an impressive gothic building. This beautiful stone structure is the recipient of an award from the Indian Heritage Society, Mumbai. It also houses the School and Junior College of Commerce and Science run by The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Parsee Charitable Institution.

The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce is co-educational and open to all cultures and religions.

The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce is most conveniently located in the heart of South Mumbai, Opposite Charni Road railway station. It is a landmark that is easily accessible by rail and road.

The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Parsee Charitable Institution and The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce. Since June 2008, Dr. Dolly Mistry has served as the Director for The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy College of Commerce.

The Institution aims at creating good citizens and the overall development of the students. Following this goal, the institution with its academic sessions, extension activities and extra co-curricular activities, helps the students in the acquisition of knowledge, values community orientation, good citizenship, and life skills as well as trains them for successful careers and prospects. Constant efforts are made for community and social development and for helping economically and socially backward students by remission of fees
